LLOYD GLASSPOLE ENNIS

Applicant

v.

VILLE DE LONGUEUIL

Respondent

DECISION

THE REQUEST FOR REVIEW

[1] Mr. Lloyd Glasspole Ennis, represented by Mr. Richard Anthony Breakenridge, requested from Greenfield Park, Saint-Hubert and Brossard in identical letters dated April 1, 2002:

all information the above recipient control; And have (and had) a greater interest in, about the SUBJECT; Including the following information :

- all personal information which concerns the SUBJECT,
- a list of all persons who have consulted information which concerns the SUBJECT,
- a list of categories of persons who were exempted from registering when they consulted information which concerns the SUBJECT. (sic)

[2] On May 4, 2002, not having received a response, Mr. Breakenridge requested the Commission d'accès à l'information (the "Commission") to review these unanswered requests.

THE PROOF AND ARGUMENTS

i) The public body

[3] The City of Longueuil, responding for the boroughs of Greenfield Park, Saint-Hubert and Brossard, stated in a letter dated July 30, 2002 and signed by the person responsible for access, M^e Carole Leroux, that there was no information contained in the files of the protection and emergency services of these boroughs, concerning Mr. Ennis.

ii) The applicant

[4] The Commission informed the applicant that given this information, it was prepared to close the file.

[5] The applicant stated, in a letter dated December 15, 2002, that he would make no further representations at this point.

DECISION

[6] The representative of the City, a lawyer who thereby engages her professional responsibility, has stated that no information exists in the City of Longueuil protection and emergency service files concerning the applicant.

[7] CONSEQUENTLY, THE COMMISSION:

[8] DISMISSES the application and CLOSES the file.
